

To Wish

Sweta Tekal (17 years)

This question quivers my heart...

"Is it love or lust?"

I want to be your angel

And the queen of your heart.

I want to bring a shine to your face

And the glow and warmth in your eyes.

I want to return the softness of your rosy cheeks

Into your beautiful face.

I want to open your heart to new heights and possibilities

And show you that there's more to life than you think there is.

I want to be your shining star

Midnight moon and Majestic Mountain.

I wish, I wish, I wish...that you knew I wasn't false.

For that's all I can do...

Wish.
